

When visiting the Farm, how do you get there?		Are there any reasons that you do not use the Farm during specific seasons?	What would you change about the Farm?
Response	Comments	Open-Ended Response	Open-Ended Response
Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc. Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc.		I think that any parking in the entry corridor to Park City would definitely diminish the attractiveness of the entry corridor and the overall look of Park City.	I have lived in Park City for thirty-eight years. I remember when the Osguthorpe's herded cows across the highway from the pole barn to the barn. There is history here!
Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.		I no longer participate in winter activities other than walking	Nothing. I am adamant about leaving such an iconic site as it is. Use of the barn other than upkeep is a risk to its survival. Let's leave something in this town as it was to be enjoyed in its original state. I did not answer some of the questions as they were not relevant to me.
Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc.			NOTHING...It is a wonderful open space that preserves the farm in an almost original state....great peaceful place for walking! Please no more "events!" I think making it usable inside and out will help preserve the barn. I'd like to see it be more than an icon.
Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc.	Use bike	Mainly use the trail for biking so use only when clear.	Change very little on the exterior--make interior usable compatible with 60% of existing parking.
Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc. Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.	The main reason I don't want events is that there is not enough parking.		I would not see more use of the building BUT I do not want to see the demographics change to the entry corridor. If public events were to be allowed, I would like to see them transport their people in (NO parking on 224 or Aspen Dr) and I do NOT want to see additional parking on the barn side. A small expansion to the lot...ok....bussing people in....ok. IF the events provided bussing from some parking lot off site, I'd still limit the use. Nothing

Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc. Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.		I don't skate ski or cross country ski I don't ski.	Nothing. It's wonderful just as it is. nothing It is a historical site and needs to stay that way.
Parking on Aspen Springs Rd. Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.		no. I like to view it.	Do not change anything! Nothing leave the farm as it is we do not need a bunch of cars ruining that beautiful place it was Samantha as open space let's leave it like that

Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc. Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.			Why not renovate the inside so events can be held there instead of the small building on the grounds remove pole barn and change to more parking
Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc.		Not a cross- country skier	Nothing. We bought this parcel for its beautiful open space. Impacts should not be any greater.

			The old estimate to "fix" the barn was $5,000,000. Does the city have so much money they can toss it away on this sort of project, following the library???? How about a tax decrease. Leave the farm and barn as they are now. Are you trying to justify your existence??
Parking on Aspen Springs Rd.			COME ON, THIS IS DENISE CAREY TRYING TO SAVE HER JOB. WAIT...LETS LEAVE THE FARM AS IT IS..NO WEDDINGS. YOU ALREADY DID THIS SURVEY. DIDN'T YOU GET THE ANSWER YOU WANTED?????? THIS STINKS!

I use it all times of year. exception is the winter when it is used for cross country skiing which I don't do.

NOTHING. please do not have any more events public or private (especially not private). more events would limit our freedom to visit the farm anytime we want. also seeing tons of cars parked around the barn would ruin the look of the open space. PLEASE DO NOT PUSH FOR MORE EVENTS. IT IS LOVELY THE WAY IT IS. It's call OPEN SPACE for a reason.

Current parking limits the amount of traffic trampling grounds, which is a good thing. Especially since there is no one physically present on property.

Possibly excessive cold weather & little shelter.
No

I would like to see the Farm mirror the working dairy of the past. A community garden that would provide for the needy &/or sell goods for support of the Farm. Possibly a small version of the Wheeler Farm in Murray. It is a beautiful piece of property and becoming a working Farm would enhance the land & raise funds to support & maintain the beauty. Run by volunteers with a couple of paid employees.

NO further plans to change this Park City icon to another upscale, developed Reception Center! Leave it as the originally planned tranquil open space with the limited low-key events meant to serve the community in a natural and historic way. and do not exploit it! Save it for future generations to enjoy as it is.....with any necessary repairs and maintenance. Do NOT give in to money-making criteria and schemes!

You need a box like this for the parking issue. I like that we are thinking about expanding it's use for all, but let's don't turn it into a parking lot. Let's protect the view shed. If a party wants to use the Farm, THEY must make arrangements for their attendees to get there. No additional parking should be created. This will automatically limit the size of the events. Also, since this is a historic preservation site, all of the money made by the city to rent it out should go to the historical preservation budget!!!!

Protect it, but lets take advantage of it...use it!
Love the bathrooms there when I am Nordic skiing !!

I would not want to see a lot of events at the Farm, some would be fine, but a crowd at the barn would ruin the serene ambiance of the barn's presence and historic feel. An event once a month would be fine, maybe twice a month.

Public Transit/Walking/Biking/etc.

It needs to be maintained through non profit donations and events. Commercial events such as weddings etc would have a negative impact with parking, lighting, noise, and litter. The events that are now in place benefit the entire community not just the few that would pay for private events

Part of what is beautiful of the barn is enjoying the serenity of it in its surroundings.
Having throngs of people there all the time would definitely take away from its beauty.

I think the barn and its grounds can be managed and used correctly and benefit beauty of the space which it provides. You can have an annual lottery of events to be held and announced making it a destination. The clean up and usage needs to be monitored and pre-charged accordingly and a paid representative to be at each event to ensure the usage is not damaging

The iconic Farm property - the historical introduction at the entrance to our town - should not be turned into crowded public facility for any reason. It was originally preserved with the idea of providing the community with its wonderful natural setting and beauty, and a tranquility to be enjoyed.....along with an appreciation of a piece of Park City history - too much of w which, is being lost to development and so-called progress. It should also not be viewed as another way for the city to simply earn some money. That would degrade its memory, depart from the original intent of preservation of the Farm property. Thank you for the opportunity to express my concerns regarding development of any kind to change the nature of our McPolin Farm.

Both the farm and the pole barn are beautiful structures that I think should be maintained. I understand that it needs a lot of renovation but by opening it to private events (especially weddings and corporate outings) a fee can be charged to use it which can be used specifically for that purpose. I think it would be amazing if it was used as much as possible (people just need to be aware they will have to pay)

It's a wonderful space for small group use only. We are very happy the city preserved this open space!!

Some of these questions don't have the answers I want to give. If the pole barn is historic, let's preserve it. If it's an accident waiting to happen and has no historic value, then probably remove it. McPolin Farm is a beautiful place. I want its essence to be maintained if at all possible. Too much access for crowds of people will likely be destructive. That's just the way people are. I clean up after others all the time and really don't want McPolin to suffer. I like my access for gentle walks and photography. But I leave only footprints, if that. Thank you.

Make it structurally sound and maintain its historic beauty. It's always fun to see people using it. I think it enhances its appeal to have public/private uses. Nothing, protect the farm and all existing space around it. It would be tragic to lose any of the space to more parking etc.

Do not restrict use. Instead allow whomever is willing to pony-up funds use the farm and then use 100 percent of that income for structural preservation and improvements.

we have recently moved here permently. We've been coming to Park City since 1982. As a perment resident, we will try to use the farm more often.

Improve the building; establish offsite parking; allow bus service to the farm from Kimball Junction and Park City.

I would like it to be a destination place I could take my grandchildren. Now it is a barn we drive past. We once stopped and walked around, but there is no reason to go back. The kids thought it was "okay", but have never asked to go back.

I dont think that anything needs to be changed. It has been there for quite awhile and it is important to Park City. I don't think that we should change something that that has been there for awhile and then it a big part of Park City.

Protect the barn!

I'm surprised that #5 didn't allow comment on the recommended number of public events. I suggest that public events be generally allowed with a restriction of, say, a 5-day gap. After more public events are successfully accommodated (for, say, a couple years), then private event rentals should be allowed. Given the city discussion about a possible new community center, the 12/year limit on McPolin is long overdue for change.

Re: Parking. I'm not much concerned about the distance to the existing lot (hopefully it could be expanded). This is still an historic site and I would be reluctant to have a lot of parking near the barn. Not much at all. Just make the structure safe.

Get rid of the pole barn and use the concrete pads for parking.

I believe the Osguthorpe family needs more recognition for what they have done and attributed to the farm and how they continue to conserve. They have had a tremendous impact on the farm. We should be reaching out to them more for input and history.

Make it into an event space. Create a revenue stream for the City, allow people to enjoy the historic structure and grounds. It's a shame that it is just sitting there unused. I would like to see it used more often. It is a great asset, lets use it!

I fear more uses may lead to greater wear and tear of the farm - and increased cost for the city trying to police how people behave at certain events. having said that, it is a beautiful location and the use of it is tempered by the limited parking - so the wear and tear may not be that great be removed. Ideally I would love to see a wildlife over pass for the elk, deer and moose. The carcasses and road kill are just unacceptable for this community.

I truly believe that Park City should make wildlife and protecting their migratory corridors/ habitat a priority.

If we do not put plans in now, they will be pushed out and killed off. Having the Cranes, Beavers, large and small wildlife....it is all part of our ambience. As is open space and recreation.

Dogs off leash is getting ridiculous. For whatever reason dog owners think they are entitled to let there dogs harass/kill wildlife and destroy nests. Plus it is just annoying to be on a peaceful bike/hike/skate and have a dog run up to your face and jump on you and bark at you.

Round Valley is an environmental disaster. There is little diversification of wildlife. In the winter snow you see NO small animal tracts...

Round Valley is prime Sage Grouse Habitat and yet there is no protection for them.

I think that it would be a benefit to the community to have areas coridored off for wildlife reintroduction.

To have areas banned from dogs during critical breeding/nesting times. It is unfortunate that rules have to be made, but so many people are moving in

The farm should be used for its intended purpose.

It is so important and a great landmark. I would move the pole barn over to the property and use that ground for more parking when needed. I would like to see the barn restored so that community dances can be held in the barn; square dancing, western dance. You could have the Utah Symphony perform or weddings inside to help fund the cost of maintenance. Yes, it would be used. I would limit wedding to weekdays and 4 to 5 per month. Weekend events should be community event use with minimal charges to attend. Everything seems to be getting out of reach in cost to attend. Walking is good for everyone. Make parking off site a must with bus service to the underground portal. Make it known in advertisements that the event is a green event and encourage walking, using the bus - not parking is provided - please use the public bus service, walk or bike. I see that more and more in Park City. It is good. There must be grants available to make this possible. I hope you can make it happen. 435-729-0010

If it can be done economically, make the Barn a community gathering place - It is the iconic entry statement for Park City - would be great to have the energy of appropriate events there. Not much at all. I can see allowing some additional private use to offset costs and maintenance. But keep it the way it is.
