INFORMATION

Park City Alerts

Get notified about emergencies and other important community information by signing up for our Park City Emergency Alert Program at parcityalerts.org. This program enables the city to provide you with critical information such as emergencies, traffic, missing persons, and special events. You can also text FILMFEST to 888777 and subscribe to notifications during the Festival.

All locals know that the most up-to-date information can be found at www.kpcw.org or on the radio at 91.7 FM. Tune in for updates about traffic, weather and information on the festival.

Post Office

The best time to visit the Main Street Post Office is before 1 p.m., though the post office will remain open for access to post office boxes and will hold normal hours as posted throughout the festival. A handful of 15 minute parking spaces are available along 5th Street, behind the post office on Swede Alley and in front of the post office on Main Street. If you work, live or are staying near Main Street in the Old Town Area, it is highly encouraged that you walk to the Main Street Post Office. There are 2 additional post office locations in Park City at Kimball Junction and on Park Avenue next to the police station.

Restaurants

Restaurants are busy and may be rented out for private functions during the Sundance time period. The best option if you plan to eat out during the festival is to call ahead for a reservation, or visit www.parkcityrestaurants.com/ for more local restaurant information.

Businesses, Employees and Volunteers

Many employees at local shops and restaurants live in town on a year-round basis. In addition, more than 1,800 festival volunteers make this unique time possible. Whether going to a screening, shopping or eating, locals are a great resource for information to our visitors. For information regarding Arts & Culture, Dining & Nightlife, Health, Wellness & Medical, Lodging & Transportation, Spas & Salons, Recreation & Activities, or Retail & Shopping, visit www.visitparkcity.com.

Ride On Park City! - DO OUR PART!!!

Before thinking of where to park—think about how you can Bus, Bike, Walk or Carpool. The easiest way to get around is to take Park City's free transit and walk around Park City during the Sundance Film Festival. This will save you time, money and ease traffic and congestion on the roads. Many paved sidewalks allow pedestrians to easily get around to various areas in town. Pedestrians should use sidewalks or walking paths, crosswalks and obey traffic signs and pedestrian controls. Download the Mystop App to get a real time transit information and see where the buses are.

Resort Traffic & Parking

Traffic congestion increases in the morning as kids are going to school and skiers are heading to the slopes from 7:00 to 9:00 a.m., as well as in the evening at 4pm when skiers are leaving the slopes and locals head home from school and work.

Lowell Avenue, Empire Avenue and Lower Deer Valley Drive, Bonanza, 224 and 248 experience high traffic and congestion during this time until about 6:30 p.m.. Winter weather conditions can intensify traffic congestion. A few tips:

- Try to change your schedule to help ease the traffic and congestion during this time.
- Keep that cool Park City attitude and plan a little extra time to get from place to place.
- Bus, Bike, Walk, Carpool—that is the best thing we can all do to cut down on traffic and congestion in the Park City area.

Leaving the ski slopes to see a film or attend an event?

Keep your car parked. Resort lots are available for parking 4 p.m. to 2 a.m. throughout the festival. Resort lots are used for skier parking during the day. Each resort offers free Park City transit to the Old Town Transit Center where you can catch a bus to other locations throughout town. Our resort partners have partnered with the City to allow use of the resort parking lots outside of resort hours during the festival. Please mind all posted signs and regulations. Vehicles left in the resort lots after 2 a.m. will be towed at the owner's expense, as resorts perform winter maintenance during this time.

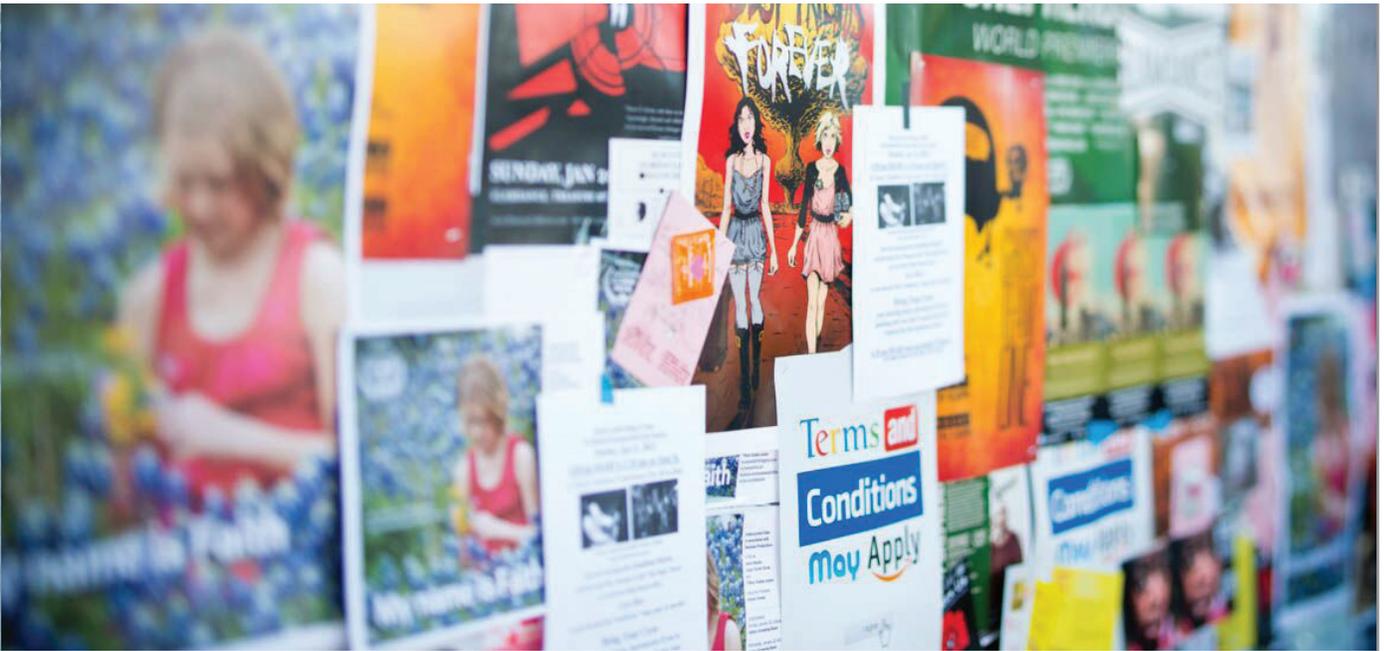

Drop & Load, Taxis, Ride-Share, and Shuttles

As dates indicate above, parking will be removed from Main Street and Park Avenue and may be replaced with temporary drop and load areas. In order to pull over in these drop and load areas, the driver must remain in the vehicle and must be actively dropping off or loading in passengers.

Special Use of Parking Permits

Will be needed if a business owner or company is loading in/out of a Main Street venue, required to provide crowd control, park a satellite truck, store a POD or require a lift/boom or if you are looking to perform an activity that requires the use of public parking spaces. Call 435.615.5301 to obtain a Special Use of Public Parking Permit. Permit deadline is 72 hours in advance of any load in or load out.

Please do not block traffic. Be aware of pedestrians when you are dropping off or picking up guests. Be mindful of all posted signs and of other traffic or sight impediments when you are pulling over.

PARKING INFORMATION

Public parking in the Old Town core area will be by permit or pay only January 18-28, 2018. Main Street patrons and Main Street employees are encouraged to ride the bus to avoid traffic and parking challenges in Old Town. The last bus leaves the Main Street Transit Center at 2:30 a.m.

Richardson Flat Lot —Richardson Flat Parking Lot will be available with transit to and from to the High School from 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. January 18 — 27. Park and take the bus from this lot to the High School. From the High School you can transfer to many venues and theatres through out Park City. Parking in this lot is free throughout the festival.

Resort Parking Lots—Resort parking lots are available for parking after the ski day from 4:00 p.m.-2:00 a.m. only.

Sandridge Lots—Are available for carpool permit holders only. These lots are located off of Marsac Avenue.

ADA Parking

Supplemental ADA spaces are available behind the Park City History Museum on Swede Alley below 5th Street. Additional ADA spaces are available in the Brew Pub Parking Lot on Swede Alley. All City parking lots that are open to the public will continue to offer ADA spaces as marked. For further information about paratransit service and for an ADA Eligibility Application, contact Park City's paratransit certification office, Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at (435) 615-5353 or TTY: (435) 615-7041.

Residential Areas

Park City welcomes guests to our community from around the world during the Sundance Film Festival. The increase in guests and visitors and the unique Sundance venues also bring increased traffic to our residential neighborhoods. Whether you are visiting, providing transportation services or a local picking up a friend for a film or on your way to work, please be respectful when driving through residential areas. Mind the speed limit and posted signs and watch for pedestrians and children.

Remember, help reduce Park City's carbon footprint – Take Transit, Walk or Bike and Carpool. If driving, please remember – Turn your Key and Be Idle Free!

Winter Streets Maintenance

Park City Streets Department completes winter maintenance for all public parking lots and streets between the hours of 2:00-6:00 a.m. daily. Overnight parking is not permitted; cars left in public lots or on the streets are subject to ticket or tow at the owner's expense as signs are posted.
