The Mayor and City Council seek one community member to fulfill a vacant position on the Park City Public Art Advisory Board (PAAB). The vacant term expires June of 2025.

Those interested in applying must be a full-time resident within City boundaries. Board members serve three-year terms, and may serve no more than two consecutive terms. The Board meets on the second Monday of every month at 5:00 p.m. at City Hall in the Marsac Executive Conference Room. Board members are not compensated and serve as representatives of the citizens of Park City.

PAAB makes recommendations to City Council regarding Public Art planning, expenditures and maintains the City's public art inventory. The eight-member board focuses on project identification, requests for proposals, selection process (including reviewing artists' proposals for each project) and making recommendations to City Council.

The Public Art Advisory Board page on the city's website includes links to the Strategic Plan, Public Art Master Plan, and Policies documents.

Application deadline is 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 1. To submit applications or for questions, please contact Jenny Diersen at jenny.diersen@parkcity.org / 435.640.5063.

An interview schedule will be sent out after the application deadline. Appointments are anticipated to be scheduled at the City Council meeting in November or December. The selected candidates will begin their term as soon as possible.
